ROSE PARADE FLOAT DECORATING TOUR

SEE THE FLOATS BEING DECORATED

What began back in 1890 as an event that drew 2,000 people to watch a parade of flower-covered carriages, today is one of the most watched events around the world. The Rose Parade's elaborate floats have come a long way since the Tournament's first procession down Colorado Boulevard. Today, float building is a multi-million dollar business. You'll get the chance to immerse yourself in the festivities at the Rose Parade as you see the float construction in progress. When you visit the float building site, you'll see how floats are created from design through decoration. You'll be able to watch the workers apply flowers, seeds and other vegetation used to create the various effects. There are also official Rose Parade and Rose Bowl souvenir stands at the event.
