A DAY IN GRIFFITH PARK

GUIDED TOUR OF GRIFFITH PARK

Griffith Park is the tenth-largest municipally owned park in the United States and one of the largest urban parks in North America, spanning over 4,300 acres of land. We'll spend the day with our expert guide, John Daugherty, as we discover some of the hidden gems in the park including the Autry Museum of the American West and take a train ride at Travel Town.

TRAVEL TOWN MUSEUM AND TRAIN RIDE

The Travel Town Museum focuses on the history of rail-road transportation in the western United States from 1880 to the 1930s. The museum features 43 full-scale rail-road engines, cars and other rolling stock. During your visit, you'll board the The Melody Ranch Special, a miniature train once owned by Gene Autry, for a loop around the museum grounds.

AUTRY MUSEUM OF THE AMERICAN WEST

Celebrating its 30th anniversary in 2018, the Autry Museum of the American West is the realization of Gene Autry's dream to build a museum to exhibit and interpret the heritage of the West and showcase its influence on the United States and the world.
