FOODIE FAVORITE TOUR

FOODIE TOUR AT FARMERS MARKET

The Original Farmers Market is one of L.A.'s most treasured landmarks and a destination for food lovers worldwide. You'll spend several hours with a knowledgeable guide as you explore the market, learn about its history, and meet some of its longtime merchants and family legacies. Along the way, you'll be treated to ten different generous tastings ranging from L.A.'s highest rated doughnuts to pizza from L.A.'s first pizzeria, authentic Brazilian barbecue to Spanish gazpacho, Cajun jambalaya and more. You'll hear the stories behind the food being tasted and meet the people who prepare the delicacies.

SHOPPING AT FARMERS MARKET AND THE GROVE

Step aboard The Grove Trolley for a free ride from Farmers Market down the center of The Grove to the dancing fountains which entertain the crowd every hour. This premier outdoor shopping and dining venue is anchored by both Nordstrom and Crate & Barrel, and has flagship stores for British fashion chain Topshop/Topman, Abercrombie and Fitch, Barnes & Noble, and Apple. Other stores include Michael Kors, two-story GAP and J.Crew locations, Nike, MAC Cosmetics, COACH, Anthropologie, Barneys New York and American Girl Place.

SHOPPING AT EATALY

This place is nirvana for anyone who likes Italian food. Inside the three-story, 60,000 square-foot space that is dedicated to everything Italian, you'll discover restaurants, grab-and-eat snacks and a marketplace of fresh produce, meats, fishbreads, pastries, pasta, and cheeses to take home.
