GUIDED TOUR OF HERITAGE SQUARE MUSEUM

Over the past forty years, Heritage Square Museum has acquired and restored eight historically significant buildings from different Los Angeles neighborhoods. Located on acres of period appropriate landscaped grounds, the museum is the place where history comes alive! On your guided tour, you'll be transported to the end of the 19th century, when California was a fledgling state. From the simplicity of the Longfellow-Hastings Octagon House to the opulence of the William Perry Mansion, the Museum provides a unique look at the lifestyles of the people who contributed so much to the development of modern Los Angeles.

GRIER-MUSSER MUSEUM TOUR

The Grier-Musser Museum is an elegant showcase of the Victorian period. The museum is situated in an historic Queen Anne Victorian house that dates to 1898. The period antiques and collectibles demonstrate how life looked more than a hundred years ago. For antique enthusiasts, the museum is a must-visit attraction. Also, the architectural details of the home attract visitors who are interested in historic architecture. With its extraordinary chandeliers, stained glass, and gleaming woodwork, the museum is a must-see.
