

Death Valley and Las Vegas

FEBRUARY 8-11, 2021

Stark beauty, traces of frontier history and an oasis in the middle of the desert beckon the traveler to Death Valley. Although the name is foreboding and gloomy, the valley is actually full of life. We'll spend two nights at the newly renovated Ranch at the Oasis of Death Valley. We'll venture out for the day with a local guide discover this fascinating place where we'll encounter spectacular wild-flower displays, snow-covered peaks, beautiful sand dunes, abandoned mines and the lowest spot in North America! Death Valley National Park also harbors some of the darkest night skies in the United States offering some of the best stargazing you've ever experienced. That dark sky is key to its certification as the largest Dark Sky Park in the U.S. National Park System. After two tranquil nights under the starry sky, we'll travel to the bright lights of fabulous Las Vegas for an overnight stay and gaming fun at the Golden Nugget Hotel Casino.

Tour Highlights:

- An evening at your leisure in Death Valley
- Overnight stay in Las Vegas at the Golden Nugget Hotel & Casino
- Evening tour down the Las Vegas strip to see the lights
- Lots of other surprises along the way!

WHERE WE WILL BE STAYING IN DEATH VALLEY:

Welcome to the new and improved Ranch at Death Valley. The sprawling, 3-diamond hotel has been part of a $100 million renaissance and is the energetic center of activity in Death Valley. Set along Highway 190 next to the National Park Service Visitor Center, you can enjoy a classic town square with towering date palms and mission California architecture. There's lots of room to spread out with huge lawns set along an 18-hole golf course — the lowest elevation course in the world, a natural spring-fed pool to help keep cool, and rooms with exterior entrances and private patios.
