

CHRISTMAS IN LITTLE ITALY

ALL DAY GUIDED HOLIDAY TOUR OF SAN DIEGO'S LITTLE ITALY

Little Italy, San Diego is alive during the Christmas season. Eighteen blocks of Christmas lights illuminate this 206 acre neighborhood. Stores are decorated for the Christmas holidays with care and brimming with culinary treats and imports from Italy. Trees are trimmed and adorned for the joy of the season in the Italian quarter -- an area that has become a virtual slice of Italy in San Diego. After a welcome from your Italian guide, you will have time for lunch on your own at the Little Italy Food Hall, followed by shopping at Little Italy's special Holiday Market located in the Piazza della Famiglia. Later, we will enjoy a private gathering at the historic Amici House where guests will be treated to cappuccino and Italian holiday cookies and mini pastry while being serenaded by the handsome and charming Pietro, Little Italy's favorite singer/performer. A live musical performance will ring in the season with the sounds of Christmas cheer. You will also have a chance to visit Little Italy's historic Italian church to see their life-size nativity scene and hear about the origins of this ancient tradition, followed by a stop at a landmark Sicilian/Italian bakery and shopping at Little Italy's oldest and most historic Italian grocery. As night falls, you'll join together at the community Christmas tree in the Piazza for a holiday sing along, then climb back aboard the coach to visit a nearby historical home and famous landmark lit up with over a million holiday lights while listening to stories of Italian Christmas traditions.
